

USING THE START MENU:

The Taskbar contains the Start button, which is the launch pad for applications on the system. The Start button opens the Start menu, which allows you to move, or trace, the mouse pointer through folders or submenus containing documents or applications.

New Terms

Start Button	Use the Start button on the Taskbar to open the Start menu.
Start Menu	The Start menu contains icons for accessing applications and documents quickly and easily.
Highlight Cursor	The highlight cursor indicates the currently selected folder, command, or file on a menu.

